WHISKY MENU

HIGHLANDS

CLYNELISH 14YO

A distinctively waxy Highlander, with light citrus on the nose and a short, smoky finish. Enjoyed best with a splash of fresh water.

GLENCADAM 10YO

A surprisingly smooth whisky for its proof; with fresh fruits on the nose and a long finish to be savoured. Enjoyed best neat.

OBAN 14YO

Our local, unhurried since 1794. On the nose; notes of the sea which the distillery overlooks. A balanced whisky – with just a hint of bite! Enjoyed best neat.

OBAN LITTLE BAY

A typically smooth Oban whisky, married with the added complexities of the refill American oak hogsheads and European oak Sherry casks in which it has matured in. Deep oaky flavour. Enjoyed best neat.

GLEN GARIOCH 12YO

Pronounced “Glen Ge-ree” (honestly!), this characterful whisky combines dark berries, caramel, and just a hint of plums, which results in a long, satisfying finish. Enjoyed best with a splash of fresh water.

DALMORE 15YO

A classic Dalmore whisky. Rich yet gentle, smooth yet a touch spicy, full of flavour yet it doesn't linger. Enjoyed best neat.

TOMATIN 18YO

Perfect for sipping by our fire, this whisky finished in Oloroso Sherry Casks begins with intense notes of honey, finishing with warming spices – sweet turning to dry. Enjoyed best with a splash of fresh water.

LOCH LOMOND 12YO

A bonnie, bonnie, banker here from the shores of Scotland's largest loch. A little peppery to begin with, rounded off with a touch a sweetness. Enjoyed best with a splash of fresh water.

LEDAIG 10YO

From the Isle of Mull, Ledaig use a different style of peat to those on Islay. This results in a longer peat flavour that is slightly dryer. One of the most complex 10YO available. Enjoyed best with a splash of fresh water.

SPEYSIDE

BENROMACH 10YO

Self-proclaimed “the classic Speyside Single Malt Scotch whisky”, and you can see why. Rich, fruity, and ever-so-slightly peaty – belying its 10YO tag. Enjoyed best neat.

KNOCKANDO 12YO

A delightfully smooth Speyside whisky, with a sweetness on the palate and a slow, spicy finish. Allow this one to sit and the flavour will flourish. Enjoyed best neat.

ABERLOUR 10YO

A cornerstone of the modern Speyside style of whisky. A rich and full-bodied malt, with bountiful flavours without being overly complex. Enjoyed best with a splash of fresh water.

DALWHINNIE WINTER’S GOLD

Inspired by the Highlands’ synonymous cold weather, this expression from Morayshire is an assertive, spicy, and warming malt. Enjoyed best with a cube of ice.

BALVENIE 14YO CARIBBEAN CASK

An indulgent whisky from Balvenie, finished in Caribbean rum casks, adding a bit of mojo to this harmonic malt. Enjoyed best neat.

THE GLENLIVET 18YO

One that encompasses everything an exceptional malt should be, this deceptively strong dram has a complex and aromatic aroma to it that any special occasion deserves. Enjoyed best with a splash of fresh water.

MACALLAN 12YO SHERRY OAK

One of the best 12YO out there, with the spirit quality that only a name like Macallan could produce. The lightly smoked butterscotch on the palette will win over even the most steadfast of peated whisky drinkers. Enjoyed best neat.

GLENFIDDICH 15YO

A staple for any worthy gantry. Light spring aromas, lead to summery citrus fruits, autumn leaves precede a winter spice finish. A true all year-round whisky. Enjoyed best neat.

LOWLANDS

GLENKINCHIE 12YO

A stalwart of the Lowland region. Subtle and delicate flavours come to fruition the more this dram is allowed to breath. Enjoyed best with a splash of fresh water.

AUCHENTOSHAN AMERICAN OAK

A young, contemporary triple-distilled whisky. Bright and sweet – almost Bourbon-like. Great as an aperitif. Enjoyed best neat.

ISLAY

LAPHROIG 10YO

One of the most distinctive whiskies in all of Scotland. A medicinal malt with a huge flavour profile eponymous with malts from Islay. Enjoyed best with a splash of water.

BRUICHLADDICH SCOTTISH BARLEY

With its flamboyant blue bottle, this whisky is hard to miss – and you wouldn’t want to. One of the only un-peated whiskies produced on the island, this young malt is friendly and delicate. Enjoyed best neat.

ARBEG AN OA

Named after the Oa peninsular, this is a much more approachable Ardbeg whisky. A dark dram that retains all the flavours you’d expect from an Ardbeg, whilst keeping that classic, Islay kick. Enjoyed best neat.

BOWMORE 18YO

Much more delicately balanced than the colour may suggest, the smoky, citrusy flavours in this iconic Islay whisky continue to develop even after your glass is empty. Enjoyed best neat.

ISLANDS

SCAPA SKIREN

A classy whisky for a classy drinker. Distilled in Scotland’s only remaining Lomond Still, this whisky hailing from Orkney is light, subtle, and mellow. Find a comfortable chair before savouring. Enjoyed best neat.

ARRAN AMARONE CASK

Apples and oranges? Chalk and cheese? Italian Red and Scotch whisky? Prepare to be pleasantly surprised. The strength and deepness of the whisky pairs beautifully with the dryness provided by the Amarone cask. Enjoyed best neat.

ISLE OF JURA SEVEN WOOD

An intriguing dram using whisky drawn from seven (!) different types of wood casks. Unlike most other multi-wood whiskies, it manages to remain mild and creamy. Enjoyed best neat.

HIGHLAND PARK VALKNUT

The perfect whisky to enjoy with a BBQ. Valknut has a slightly more robust flavour than a classic Highland Park, yet the dry smoke on the finish ensures it never becomes overpowering. Enjoyed best neat.

CAMPBELTOWN

SPRINGBANK 10YO

From the smallest whisky producing region in Scotland, this is the absolute definition of Campbeltown. Rich, sharp, and earthy, with peaty flavours rearing their head towards the finish. Enjoyed best neat.
